

Janet Rose Miller

November 6, 1948 - February 12, 2019

Janet Rose (Schoolcraft) Miller, 70, of Martinsville passed from this life at 8:25 pm on Tuesday, February 12, 2019 at the Community Hospital South in Indianapolis. Janet was the daughter of the late Bruce Darrell and Bernice Emogene (Walls) Schoolcraft. She was born in Martinsville, Indiana, on Saturday, November 6, 1948.

Janet was a lifelong resident of Martinsville and a graduate of Martinsville High School. She had worked most of her life in healthcare as a nursing assistant at the Morgan County Memorial Hospital and Kennedy Living Center, both in Martinsville. Above all, Janet was a dedicated and loving mother to her beloved sons, Jack and Phil.

She is survived by a host of loving family and dear friends including her husband, Rex Miller of Martinsville; two sons, Jack (wife, Lesley) Schoolcraft of Valley Springs, SD and Phil Miller of Martinsville; one brother, Carl Schoolcraft of Martinsville; four sisters, Linda (husband, Ed) Tharpe of Trafalgar, IN, Carol (husband, Richard) Fink of Texas, Becky Jo (husband, Rusty) Combs of Montana and Karen (husband, Gary) McGuire of Martinsville; two grandchildren, Ella and Alex Schoolcraft and one great grandchild, Ailea Schoolcraft. Janet was preceded in death by her parents; one brother, Bill Knight and two sisters, Barbara Kail and Phyllis Schoolcraft.

Family and friends are invited to visit on Saturday, February 16, 2019 from 10:00 am – 12 Noon at Neal & Summers Funeral and Cremation Center in Martinsville. Janet's brother-in-law, Rev. Ed Tharpe, will conduct a graveside service beginning at 12:30 pm in Liberty Cemetery, where she will be laid to rest following the ceremony.

Condolences and memories may be shared with the Schoolcraft/Miller family online at www.nealandsummers.com

Comments

“ So sorry to hear of Janet's passing. She was a very dear friend from way back when and spend many nights at my house back when we worked together at Kennedy Home. I ran into her and Phillip in Wal-Mart back right before Christmas and was so thankful to talk to her as we'd lost touch over the years. She looked so peaceful today and is no longer struggling with her illness. Keeping Rex, Jack, Phillip and families in thoughts and prayers!
