

Ruth Ann Myers

July 9, 1940 - December 25, 2016

Ruth Ann Myers, 76, a resident of Martinsville, passed from her earthly life at 3:15 p.m. on Sunday, December 25, 2016 after an extended illness at the IU Health Hospice House in Bloomington. Ruth Ann was the only daughter born to late James Lowell and Lila Alice (Ingram) Taylor. She was born on July 9, 1940 in Urbana, Illinois.

Ruth Ann grew up in Illinois and moved to Arkansas where she lived most of her adult life. In 2005, she moved to Martinsville to be near her only child, Trudy Nay, and her grandchildren. Ruth Ann worked many years in the manufacturing industry and retired from Cap & Gown.

She was a dedicated and selfless Christian who volunteered her time and energy for countless years at numerous hospitals, missions and shelters. Ruth Ann took great pleasure in writing poetry and drawing and was quite a talented writer and artist.

She will be deeply missed by her daughter, Trudy (husband, Scott) Nay of Martinsville; two brothers, Timothy (wife, Cindy) Taylor of Decatur, IL and James (wife, Judy) Taylor of Urbana, IL; grandchildren, Megan (husband, Caleb) Gluff, Adam (wife, Allie) Nay and Patrick Nay and great grandchildren, Eliana and Keziah Gluff.

Ruth Ann has expressed her wishes to be cremated and the family will be hosting a private memorial and burial.

“ Ruth Ann gave me so much encouragement during my trials and tribulations. Not only with my husband at the time but enduring many with my young adult son. She's given me great Godly wisdom and that is a legacy she will forever leave with me. I miss her dearly, but she's definitely in a better place.
